

Nathan Gallagher

1051 Kings Mill Rd. Apt. 310, Greenwood, IN 46142, United States

Phone 1 (317) 847-9955

Email n.a.gallagher@rug.nl

Education

Texas A&M University, School of Liberal Arts, College Station, TX, United States

Master of Arts in Nautical Archaeology

Thesis option GPA 4.00/4.00

Indiana University, School of Liberal Arts, Indianapolis, IN, United States

Bachelor of Arts in History

High Distinction GPA 3.82/4.00

University of Derby Study Abroad Semester

University of Derby, United Kingdom (Fall 2009)

Appointment

University of Groningen, Faculty of Arts, Groningen, Netherlands

Fellow in Early Modern History, ForSEAdiscovery project

September 2015 – Present

Field Work

Lake Champlain Shelburne Steamboat Field School (Summer 2014)

Activities

- Presented Paper – “The Lake George 1 Bateau: A British Colonial Utility Craft in North America”
  - North American Society for Oceanic History Conference - Erie, Pennsylvania, May, 2014
  - Society for Historical Archaeology Conference - Seattle, Washington, January 2015
- Nautical Archaeology Program’s “Shipwreck Weekend” - Committee member 2014
- Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society - Charter Member (Alpha-Xi-Upsilon Chapter)

Language Skills

English – Native speaker

French – Intermediate Reading, writing, and conversation

Dutch – Intermediate Reading

Spanish – Basic Reading

Computer Skills

-Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator

-Adobe InDesign

-Rhinoceros 4.0 (CAD)

-Microsoft Office (extensive)

-HTML, CSS, jQuery

Awards

Texas A&M Anthropology Department Conference Travel Grant (2015)
Center for Maritime Archaeology and Conservation (CMAC) Research Grant (2014)
CMAC Conference Travel Grant (2014)
Texas A&M Anthropology Department Merit Fellowship (2013)
Thelander Memorial Scholarship for Best Undergraduate History Paper (2012)
IUPUI Top 100 (2012)
Mary F. Crisler Research Scholarship (2011)
Charles O. McGaughey Leadership Scholarship (2011)
IUPUI International Experience Scholarship (2009)
Informatics Mentoring Scholarship (2008)

Work Experience

- |                                |  |
|--------------------------------|--|
| January 2015 – August 2015     | Study Abroad Services Specialist   |
| June 2012 – August 2013        | IUPUI Office of International Affairs  |
|                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• In addition to responsibilities listed under “Student Assistant” position: Acted as first point of contact for Study Abroad office; oversaw insurance processes including purchasing plans, debiting student accounts, tracking payments, and distributing insurance cards; administered photo contest logistics including collecting and organizing photos, adding meta-data to photos via Adobe Lightroom, and soliciting and allocating prizes; collaborated with office staff to redesign workflow and increase office efficiency; trained new services specialist</li></ul> |
| September 2014 – December 2014 | Shelburne Steamboat Drafting ProjectTexas A&M Anthropology Department  |
|                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Synthesized and completed scale plan drawings of four shipwrecks in Lake Champlain; Carefully inked plans to achieve publication quality.</li></ul>  |
| September 2013 – December 2014 | Assistant ConservatorTexas A&M Conservation Research Lab   |
|                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Conserved and recorded delicate artifacts; Made independent decisions for best course of action for individual artifacts; Handled hazardous chemicals and equipment in a responsible manner; Assisted with reconstruction projects as needed.</li></ul>  |
| September 2010 – January 2012  | Study Abroad Student Assistant,IUPUI Office of International Affairs   |
|                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Advised students about study abroad programs; gave classroom presentations; collaborated with staff to streamline office practices while transitioning to a new online database; contributed to the SOP manual for office use; trained new assistants; designed promotional materials; corresponded with faculty directors to ensure accurate information; updated website and online database; distributed and collected program surveys</li></ul>  |

June 2008 – September 2010

IT Training and Education Workshop Assistant,
University Information Technology Services (IUPUI)

- Trained people with a wide range of experience to use software applications such as the Adobe Suite and Microsoft office; demonstrated patience and customer service skills to help attendees get back on track when they got lost